

SOCIETY

Certainly there was never a more beautiful August as to greenery of foliage and brilliancy of bloom than the August of this present year.

In the Capitol Square of Richmond the grass is like a green velvet carpet, and the trees are in all the glory of mid-summer attire. Flower beds and gardens charm the eye with their exuberant and colorful and their variety of color. Sun-bleached and flame-like nasturtiums, pink, white and purple rasters, golden coreopsis, white and red roses, fragrant nymphaea, spicy citronellas, perfumed tuberose and vivid spikes of gladioli, render the month the crown and the perfection of the floral season.

Society is far afield, scattered here and there, many on the New England coast a sprinkling at Bar Harbor, where charming Betty Burwell Booker is to sing a solo in the presentation of "Eljah" by the Bar Harbor Choral Society, on August 25th. She has been winning all sorts of laurels for herself as a singer, since her arrival from London some weeks ago, with Mr. Francis Harford, and Richmond people here now are congratulating themselves afresh on the fact that she will appear before the Woman's Club in October.

In Virginia for the past few weeks, interest has seemed about equally divided between house parties and horse shows. A house party at "Royal Orchard," the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Scott, near Afton, Va., including Miss Mary Buford, Miss Elizabeth Dunn, of Hot Springs, Mr. George McVie Reed, and Mr. Sidney Buford, Jr., occupied a box at the Staunton Horse Show last week.

Mrs. Charles Wortham, Miss Wortham, and a party of friends were in another box. Miss Margaret Shields and Miss Elizabeth Weddell, who are spending the summer at Woodbury Forest, in Orange county, were also present. Mrs. R. T. Hunter and Miss Bessie Hunter were guests of Mrs. G. G. Goetz during the show.

The meeting of the State Bar Association rendered Hot Springs, Va., a very attractive resort last week. Many members of the association, accompanied by their wives or daughters, were present, and everybody was pleased that Hon. Allen Caperton Braxton, one of the most popular men in Virginia was elected president of the association.

From Tidewater and Upper Virginia sections, come pleasant echoes of family gatherings and of the delightful social life characteristic of the Old Dominion at this time, when nature and humanity alike seem inclined to leisure, when work seems out of the question, and holiday-making and gaiety rule the hour.

Wednesday next will be August 15th, and much gaiety must be crowded into the two weeks that remain before September comes, because the autumn season is to begin very early this year, and September always marks the ending of the gayest part of summer life at mountain resort and seashore in this State. Never has there been a season when Canadian resorts were more in favor with Richmond people than this year, as witness the number of Richmonders at North Hatley, Alexandria Bay, and other Canadian points of interest. And her cousin, Miss Gray, are among the Richmond girls that are in Canada.

Miss Marie Potts will be at Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs for August, where many other Richmond and Virginia belles will congregate to participate in the midsummer festivities.

An announcement of decided interest to Richmond people will set early September wedding bells a-ringing, as it has

SOFT WHITE HANDS IN ONE NIGHT

Soak the hands on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of

Cuticura SOAP

Dry and anoint freely with Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure. Wear old gloves or bandage lightly, in old, soft cotton or linen. For preserving, purifying and beautifying the hands, for removing redness, roughness, and irritations, for rashes and eczemas, with shapeless nails, this treatment is infallible.

Sold throughout the world. Watch for the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The Cuticura Soap and Ointment are made by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment Co., New York, N. Y.

MR. AND MRS. EMMETT N. GREGORY, JR., of Manchester, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Horatio K. Reid have just issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Gertrude W. White, to Mr. Gregory. The ceremony was performed Friday, July 20th, in Norfolk, Va.

to do with the marriage then of Miss Anne Aylett Anderson, daughter of Attorney-General William A. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Charles S. McNulty, of Roanoke, Va.

Miss Anderson has spent several winters in Richmond, and has been much admired in society here. She is now at the summer home of her parents in Lexington, Va., where the wedding will probably be celebrated. The announcement, made last week, has excited much interest.

Interesting Wedding.

One of the most elegant and fashionable weddings of the year, and one in which Richmond and Virginia people are greatly interested, was celebrated at 8:30 o'clock last evening, in Warren Memorial Presbyterian Church, Louisville, Ky., when Miss Virginia Randolph Boling Hoge, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Peyton Harrison Hoge and Mrs. Mary Stuart Hoge, was given in marriage to the Most Rev. Emilio San Germano, of Rome, Italy. The father of the bride and the pastor of the church performed the beautiful and impressive ceremony, uniting a descendant of famous Virginia families to the representative of a dual house of Northern Italy, dating back to the days of Charlemagne.

In compliment to the youth of bride and groom and their attendants, the keynote throughout in decorations was freshness and brightness, pinks, ferns and smilax forming a background for masses of flowers. Mr. Carl Shackleton managed the organ at the church, and Mr. Matthias Oliver directed a string quartet and rendered several beautiful Italian selections on the violin.

Miss Mary Stuart Hoge was maid of honor, and Mr. Harry Strater the best man. Other attendants were the bridesmaids—Misses Gertrude Bolkan, Miss Lucinda Trabue, Miss Eva Lee Smith, and Miss Margaret Rodes, and the groomsmen—Mr. Helm Strater, Mr. William L. Hoge, Mr. Jack Terry, and Mr. John Grant.

The fair young bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with exquisite rose point lace. Her tulle veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms, and her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white roses. She wore her betrothal jewels—a diamond necklace and brooch. Her wedding gift from the groom, a collar of diamonds, has been made to special order, and is awaiting her arrival in Italy.

The maid of honor was in white over pink; the bridesmaids, in white muslin and Valenciennes lace, with pink trimmings. Flowers for the maid of honor and maids were clusters of La France roses tied with pink tulle.

The ceremony at the church was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents for the bride party and a limited number of friends. At the bride's table eighteen covers were laid, Italian lace and linen being used, with candelabra having silver and rose shades. Floral decorations were in pink roses.

After a short wedding tour to the Mar de San Germano and his bride will sail for Italy. They propose to return next January for a two months' visit to Louisville, Richmond and the South.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts from friends in Louisville and other parts of the United States and from Italy. Many lovely jewels were among the gifts. The Marchesa is a niece of Mr. Randolph Holladay and a cousin of Mr. Thomas Holladay, and of Dr. Moses Hoge, of this city.

Robertson—Clarkson.

A most interesting wedding of Tuesday last was that of Miss Joan Clarkson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Mayzek Clarkson, Haymarket, Va., to General Thomas Ross Robertson, of Charlotte, North Carolina, chief-of-staff to Governor Glenn, of that State. The ceremony was performed at 6 P. M., August 7th, in St. Paul's Church, Haymarket, the Rev. Cary Gamble, officiating.

Church was beautifully decorated in palms and white hydrangeas, which were also used at the house. Miss Norton Tyler, of Haymarket, directed the music. Mrs. Thomas H. Clarkson, of Georgetown, D. C., was maid of honor, and General F. A. Macon, of Henderson, N. C., the best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary H. and Virginia Belle Price, of Philadelphia; May W. Beverly, of Haymarket, Va.; and Florence S. Gillies, of Washington, D. C.; Messrs. Hugh T. Clarkson, of Washington; Lee M. Clarkson, of Haymarket; Captain William Ross Robertson, and Major Joseph Cannon, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. Andrew, of Raleigh, and Colonel Westcott

Robertson, of High Point, N. C., were the ushers.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her away. She was gowned in white silk tulle, trimmed with real lace and worn with a tulle veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Her jewels were "Oatland's House," home of Mr. William Eustis.

Hutchins, it came into the possession of Mr. William C. Eustis, nephew of Mr. W. W. Corcoran, the late Washington millionaire, and an abode of the White Sulphur Springs in autumn days and during the seasons shortly afterward.

Mr. Eustis has been at great pains in restoring the terraces around the mansion, which has put on again the cheerful air of hospitality it formerly wore, its stables being once more filled with the guests. The young people in the wagon were Misses Elsie Brauer, Minnie Grimmell, Hilda Vahman, Frances Tighe, Clearence and Marion Wallenstein, Messrs. William and Ernest Tippett, Granger, Newton and Leland Ancarrow, Clarence Franklin and Robert Wallenstein.

Thursday was Miss Florence Stump's birthday, and she was given a lawn fête by her mother, which was attended by the younger guests of the hotel. A "watermelon frolic" was the form of entertainment—each guest having in turn to pin an appetizing looking slice of watermelon to the mouth of a hungry person, whose eyes were closed.

The first gentleman's prize was won by Leland Ancarrow. Miss Lucille Mann captured the ladies' first prize, while the consolation prize went to William Tippett. Refreshments were served on the lawn, after which games were played until the time for breaking up.

Progressive Whist.

Miss Elsie Brauer gave a "progressive whist" party Thursday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Ada French. A most enjoyable time was spent and delicious refreshments served at the close. The ladies' first prize, a game piece, was won by the guest of honor, while the gentleman's prize went to Mr. Wallenstein, who was taking a gentleman's place in the game.

Mrs. Emma Chase, Mrs. W. H. Lane and two daughters, Misses Julia and Florence, returned to their home in Petersburg Saturday, after spending the month of July at Otterburn Hotel, where they made many friends. Miss Julia has gone to Philadelphia, where she will be a member of a fortnight house-party. She will return to Otterburn in September. Mrs. Townsend Parsons and two charming little daughters, Anna and Julia, were left for their home in Richmond Saturday. Refreshments were served at the Otterburn Hotel Tuesday.

Among the recent arrivals are O. J. Miller, Misses Louise M. Schaaf, Mattie Jennings, E. M. Grinnell, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wallenstein, family and nurse, Richmond; R. W. Vaughn, Morven; T. H. Booker, G. W. Thompson, Mrs. V. P. Williams, Jetersville.

Messrs. N. M. Ancarrow, Joseph Stump and Mr. Massey, Jr., came up from Richmond to spend Sunday with their families.

Minneola House Party.

Mrs. S. S. Drewry is entertaining a charming house-party at her spacious and hospitable home, "Minneola," in Chesterfield county. Mrs. Drewry's guests are her sister, Mrs. Mollie Acgill Rosenberg, of Galveston, Texas; Mrs. Bettie Johnson, of New York; Mrs. Edward Johnson, of Annapolis, Md.; Mr. Johnson, of O. Bertram and children, formerly of New Orleans, but now of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deford and children, from near Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Ogden, of New Orleans; and Dr. Cooper Drewry and Mrs. Drewry, from Baltimore.

This annual gatherings at "Minneola" are always characterized by the exercise of old-time hospitality and graciousness typical of Southern hostesses and their homes.

Miss Newman Engaged.

Mrs. Octavia Coleman Newman announces the engagement of her daughter, Winnie, to Mr. Samuel William Jennings, of York, Pa., and New York. The marriage will take place in the early autumn.

Kendler—Whitfield.

Mr. Thomas N. Kendler, Jr., and Miss Alice H. Whitfield were quietly married at the home of the bride, No. 421 Elm Avenue, by the Rev. Mr. McGhee, of Ashbury Methodist Church, on Wednesday, August 8th, at 6 o'clock. They left for the seashore and will visit several other places while away. They will be home to their friends, the 1st of September.

August at Otterburn.

The last regular Friday night hop at Otterburn was a great success. The rotunda, parlors and ball-room, as usual, were lavishly decorated for the occasion. Japanese lanterns illuminated the lawns and large piazzas, where refreshments were served at 11 P. M. Besides the regular hotel guests, there were present about a hundred from Richmond, Petersburg, Amelia and surrounding places. The chaperones were Mrs. Tippett, of St. Petersburg; Mrs. Ancarrow, of Richmond; and Mrs. Glinn and Mrs. Morgan, of Amelia.

Monday evening was given up to "progressive euchre," the guests of the house departing from their devotion to whist for the time.

Amateur Theatricals.

Amateur theatricals were given in the wings of the rotunda on Tuesday evening. That they were largely impromptu did not detract one whit from the appearance or speech of the actors or the singleness of the inn "wee" for the first act would have convulsed a much less interested audience. Mr. H. K. Franklin, of Richmond, as head waiter, kept up the reputation of "The Blue Cow Inn" to the last act, and supplied the guests with "hash fresh each day," "banned pies," "daintiest sausage," "sterilized coleslaw," or whatever else the large placards on the inn walls announced to be the menu.

A short English comedy—so-called—followed, which came near being a tragedy, since the bridegroom in the marriage scene could not find the wedding ring, which fact so upset the bride that she inquired where it was not set down in the ceremony and so confused the clergyman that he lost his place and finished by reading a plea for the afflicted.

Hay Ride.

Wednesday evening some of the young people started on a large hay wagon directly after early tea for "Five Forks," two hours' ride by way of Amelia. A table on the hotel lawn covered with luscious slices of watermelon, greeted their return and was thoroughly enjoyed not only by the "straw-riders," but all

Minneola House Party.

Mrs. S. S. Drewry is entertaining a charming house-party at her spacious and hospitable home, "Minneola," in Chesterfield county. Mrs. Drewry's guests are her sister, Mrs. Mollie Acgill Rosenberg, of Galveston, Texas; Mrs. Bettie Johnson, of New York; Mrs. Edward Johnson, of Annapolis, Md.; Mr. Johnson, of O. Bertram and children, formerly of New Orleans, but now of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deford and children, from near Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Ogden, of New Orleans; and Dr. Cooper Drewry and Mrs. Drewry, from Baltimore.

This annual gatherings at "Minneola" are always characterized by the exercise of old-time hospitality and graciousness typical of Southern hostesses and their homes.

To Dutch Gap.

St. Augustine Literary Society will give a moonlight excursion to Dutch Gap on the evening of Tuesday, August 14th. The steamer Poughontas will leave the wharf at 8:30 P. M. There will be music, dancing, and refreshments. The committee has done everything to insure an evening of pleasure to all who go. Tickets may be procured from any member of the association or from the ladies belonging to St. Anne's Benevolent Society, from Baltimore.

Euchre at Cameron Hall.

"Euchre" was played in most attractive fashion at an entertainment recently given by Mrs. Cameron, of "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va., for her guests, among whom were the Misses Grigg, Mrs. C. M. Taylor, Mr. W. H. Taylor, Mrs. Robert Winston and Miss Winston, and Captain Wainwright, all of Richmond.

Misses Mary and Agnes Grigg scored, and assisted in the serving of dainty refreshments after the game. The first ladies' prize, a heart-shaped case, containing silver scissors, emery and tumbler, went to Mrs. William Harman, of Goshen. The second prize was awarded Miss Helen Webster, of Norfolk, and the third, Miss Mary Cameron, of Goshen.

Additional players were Mrs. Charles Webster and Misses Webster, of Norfolk; Misses Murchison and Mrs. William Moore, of Houston, Tex.; Miss Gibson, Mrs. W. F. Jones and Miss Jones, of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. William Harman and Misses Cameron, of Goshen; Mrs. William Wright and Miss Wright, of Wilmington, N. C.; Miss Miller and Mrs. W. B. Jones, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Henry Holmes and Miss Holmes, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Nancy D. Grigg, of Richmond; Misses Janie and Ellen Cameron, of Goshen; Miss Garner, of Newport News; Mr. P. H. White, of Norfolk, and William Wright, of Wilmington, N. C.

Lawn Party.

Tuesday evening last was one, to be

REDUCED TO $10.00

It's house cleaning time preparatory for inventory. Every garment was made especially for us—in the Gans-Rady way. As the quantities are small we suggest that you make your selection as early as possible.

Gans-Rady Company

and Mr. Cox and his young daughter, Miss Louise, on violin and piano. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Babcock also sang and played "Under the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," which was greatly appreciated.

Afterwards several ring games were played, and then supper was announced and served by Mrs. Netherland, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Schafer. After supper an "observatory" table was set, and Miss Louise Cox carried off the first prize. The entire programme was a great success, and afforded unlimited enjoyment.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley left last week for New York, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Virginia Whiteley, who will go abroad to remain during the fall and winter in Dresden.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Wall have returned from Atlantic City, and will very soon move into their new home, on Monument Avenue.

Judge and Mrs. L. L. Lewis, who attended the meeting of the Virginia Bar Association at Hot Springs, last week, will spend the remainder of August at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

Miss Emma Moorehead Whitfield, the head of the art department at the Woman's College, expected to embark for Antwerp August 11th, and, returning by way of New England and New York, expects to reach Richmond early in September. She has been spending some time abroad, and has specially enjoyed a tour through Holland and Belgium.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alston Cabell will spend the rest of the summer at the Greenbrier White Sulphur.

Mr. Herbert Claiborne, Mr. Hamilton Claiborne and Mr. Addison Reynolds are enjoying a Canadian fishing trip.

General and Mrs. William Ruffin Cox, who were at Hot Springs for the meeting of the Virginia bar, will probably visit the White Sulphur before returning to Richmond.

Mrs. J. Mason Miller, who has been spending the early part of the summer in Staunton, will go to the White Sulphur to remain until early autumn.

Mrs. Emily Glasgow Houston and her father, Mr. F. T. Glasgow, will shortly return from the White Sulphur.

Miss Lucy Crabbe, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. C. C. Burgess, at No. 1314 Floyd Avenue.

Mr. Basil Magruder Jones is spending the month of August at his home in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Mrs. L. O. Boslan and Miss Dorothy McClaw left yesterday for New York, where they will be met by Misses Margaret and Louise Ryan. Later they will be joined by Mr. Boslan and visit his old home in Frederick, Md.

The Rev. Dr. W. B. Evans and family are spending a very pleasant summer at their country home, "Eastwood," near Doswell's, in Hanover county.

Miss Ada Scott has recently visited friends in Louisiana.

Miss Blanche Burton, of this city, is visiting friends in Suffolk.

Mrs. L. T. Graves and children are visiting Mrs. J. A. Dixon, near Norwood, Va.

Misses Bessie Jones and Ruth Barlow, of Caroline county, are visiting friends in Richmond.

Misses Annie and Lottie Boston are visiting their brother in Charlottesville.

Miss Mildred Hill is the guest of Miss Fannie Harrison, in Amherst, Va.

Master Clarke Roper is visiting his brother, Mr. G. K. Roper, in Clifton Forge.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rodman Lewis are visiting in Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tanner and daughter are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hall, in South Roanoke.

Miss Maude Baudin is visiting her mother, Mrs. Baudin, on Brent Mountain, Va.

Mr. Hugh Fontaine Ross is visiting Mrs. W. G. Farish, near Hyanna, Va.

Mrs. W. D. White and children are visiting Mr. J. H. Biggs, at "River View," near Scottsville.

Mrs. Frank Connor and Mrs. Simon Jones are the guests of Mrs. A. F. Estes at Mansfield, Louisiana.

Miss Lucy Eubank has returned from a visit to her uncle, Mr. J. W. Fork, in West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. England and family have returned from a pleasant visit to friends in West Point.

Miss Annie G. Sullivan is spending the month of August with friends in Alexandria, Fairfax county, and Washington, D. C.

Miss Elizabeth Britton, of Church Hill, is visiting friends at Buckrook Beach.

Miss Lucile Barham is visiting Miss Bessie Epps, in College Avenue, Salem, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rupp, Jr., of No. 162 West Grace Street, have left to spend a few weeks at Ocean View.

Mrs. E. J. Wilson, of No. 2808 East Broad Street, has as her guests, her two sisters, Misses Ellen and Clara Nichols

America's Greatest Cathedral.

The largest and costliest building thus far undertaken in New York, the city of immense structures, the magnificent $10,000,000 Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine, now being erected on Morningside Heights. This will be the greatest sacred edifice in America, and the fourth in importance of its class in the world. An interesting account of this colossal temple, written by H. V. Anshutz, and illustrated with photographs showing the progress and the present state of the work upon it, forms a leading feature in the current issue of Leslie's Weekly. A striking photograph on the front of the number, showing the demolition of Dr. Parkhurst's famous old church near Madison Square Park, New York, will also attract special attention in religious circles. Among the other notable illustrations are scenes in Brazil, on the route of Secretary Root's South American tour; the varied and attractive photo contents; and bird's-eye views from the air-ship which sailed over New York, and a paper by the famous old government's methods of fostering the saving habit among the people. James L. Barton presents an excellent bit of fiction, "Jasper," in his financial review, deprecates unreasonable attacks on corporations, though criticizing the wrong-doing of the owners of some of them, and suggests the usual invaluable advice and suggestions to investors and speculators.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.

Miss Janie Bryan Rogers is visiting her friend, Mrs. Robert H. Powell, at Boykin's, Va.

Miss Bessie C. Ford, of Oakwood Avenue, and Miss Irene Leadbetter, of No. 800 North Twenty-fifth Street, will leave Tuesday for a lengthy visit to friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Miss Annie M. Perkins, of No. 402 North Second Street, left yesterday to visit her cousin, Mrs. H. G. Cammack, in Spotsylvania county.

Misses Nancy, Mary and Agnes Grigg are spending August with the Misses Cameron, at "Cameron Hall," Goshen, Va. Miss Nancy Grigg made her debut one or two seasons ago in Louisville, and as the Alleghany Hotel is crowded with her Louisville friends, she has been largely and pleasantly entertained.